Dawn Emerson

“Breaking the Mold”

3-Day Pastel Workshop
 – All Skill Levels –
June 18-20, 2012
9am-4pm

This is a very intensive, fun, and fast-paced workshop that will introduce you to new ways of combining pastel with mixed media. Short demonstrations and guided exercises will help you find and KEEP the “gesture” of your subject and go beyond the strictly representational. The goal is for each person to break the mold of what they “think” drawing and painting is, and to EXPERIENCE it for themselves in their own way.

Day 1 will focus on expressing the gesture of a subject while exploring the elements of drawing and painting - line, value, shape and edges. Day 2 will focus on creating gesture with the surface itself using texture, pattern, and layering to enhance space and depth. Day 3 will focus on working in series as a way to generate themes for continued growth and discovery. Dawn is an award-winning pastelist and an inspiring teacher with over 25 years of experience. She makes each workshop a unique environment where the heart and mind can work together.
