Mary Ann Cherry paints primarily in soft pastel or oils, working in a studio near the Snake River in Idaho where wildlife and birds are plentiful and add tremendous joy to her life as an artist. She is a signature member of the Pastel Society of America, founder of the Pastel Society of the Northern Rockies, and a Master Signature Member of Women Artists of the West.

Mary Ann is an inspiring and sought-after workshop instructor known for giving generous time to each participant and insightful, compassionate, critiques that immediately begin to improve her student's work. Her workshop will emphasize strong color choices using harmony, contrast, saturation and color temperature. She will be teaching painters how to evaluate color in their reference and manipulate it into individual choices as a natural process in beginning a painting. Students build confidence in the use of color, which not only makes their work more dynamic but more fun as well. She will cover tips and tricks of pastel and many “cross-medium” skills that make this class suitable for beginners through advanced students. Composition, focal point, eye-path and design quality will be covered over the four-day workshop, and she will demo each day.
